CHARLES FOX, Plaintiff

v.

HARLEY LAPPIN, et al.,
Defendants

C.A. No. 05-40106-WGY

NOTICE FOR EXTENSION

This is to notify the Court that the B.O.P. has asked for a 20 day extension on my B.P. 11 they received August 30, 2005. As You can see, it was due October 9, 2005, but now is due October 29, 2005. This is dealing with my Public Safety Factor.

Also the Court will find that the answer for my B.P. 11 dealing with C.C.C. Placement is due on October 26, 2005.

I would like to suggest to the Court that the B.O.P. knows that if my case is not heard by the time my sentence is up all my arguments are mute. They have argued that I have not completed my Administrative Remedy Process but if the Administration had of answered this process in a timely fashion, all of this would have been over. The United States Attorney would have the Court believe that I put the horse before the cart, and I might have done that. As a consequence of this action the United States Attorney would have the Court dismiss my case. But, in the Governments argument they clearly admit that the B.O.P. was late in addressing Plainiffs arguments in the Administrative Remedy Process. The United States Attorney is asking the Court to punish the Plaintiff for his mistakes but to overlook the mistakes made by the Defendants.

Plaintiffs 10% date for CCC Placement is October 27, 2005 and his out date is Feb. 1, 2006.
